What is L.E.A.D. - Law Enforcement Against Drugs & Violence

Founded in 2014, L.E.A.D. is the brainchild of Law Enforcement and Educational leaders who saw a need to develop a comprehensive evidence-based means for law enforcement agencies to ensure they provide proven effective methods to serve their respective communities. Many different organizations have attempted to offer specific programs to serve various functions. L.E.A.D. is designed to bring the entire agency together to offer many different types of programs. L.E.A.D. is the most rapidly growing drug and violence prevention program in the United States, with certified Instructors in 40 states.

Benefits of L.E.A.D:

Law Enforcement Agencies

- A charitable way to support their initiatives.
- Proven Effective K-12 Drug and Violence Prevention Curricula called Too Good for Drugs and Violence.
- A team of Staff and Leaders to assist their endeavors.
- A branded organization to bring their organization to the next level and meet all accreditation Standards.
- On the Street Initiatives to support all Law Enforcement prevention efforts.

School Districts

- A peace of mind knowing that the curricula being offered by their Law Enforcement Agency has been tested, proven effective, and listed on various federal K-12 registries.
- Assurance that educational leaders have reviewed the initiatives and have a voice in ensuring program longevity and support.
- A resource to make your children feel safer at school.
- Justification to allow Police Officers in the classroom.

Communities

- Assurance that the curriculum being taught in the school has been tested and proven effective. The community investment in the health and welfare of the students will show a priceless return in the overall stability and well-being of the community.
